

Sigma Xi honors – Call for Nominations 2024

Nominations are open for faculty members to nominate a student or another faculty member for membership in Sigma Xi, The Scientific Research Society. Sigma Xi is a national honor society of scientists and engineers who are elected to the society because of their research achievements or potential.

Nomination Criteria

Nominations are accepted from faculty members. A student nominee should have evidence of research scholarship through publication or presentation, have a clear intention of going further in scientific research and have a high quality GPA. A faculty nominee should have evidence of significant research activities and scholarship. Please read the detailed guidelines found on the Sigma Xi website.

Nomination Procedure

To nominate a prospective member of Sigma Xi, a nominator should fill out two forms, the Sigma Xi Local Nomination Form (BELOW) and the Sigma Xi National Nomination Form. The local form provides information for the local committee to consider for the nomination. The national form is for the local committee to forward to the national organization. Both forms are electronically editable. You may also print them out and submit scanned forms.

Faculty members do not need to be a member of Sigma Xi to nominate a student for membership. If you are not a member, leave the Nominator/Second Nominator information blank on the national form and the local committee will fill those in. Nominations of faculty members to Sigma Xi are welcomed. For further information, please talk to one of the local Sigma Xi officers.

Deadline: The two nomination forms must be submitted to Andrew Smith, Department of Biology, CNS 155 (Email: asmith@ithaca.edu) by Monday, March 4, 2024.

Banquet and Induction: The reception and induction ceremony will be held this year on Wednesday, April 10, 2024, 5:30-6:30pm in the Campus Center Klingenstein Lounge. Nominators should plan to attend and prepare a few comments about the research achievements of the student or faculty member.
