Academic Regalia

The custom of wearing academic caps and gowns is traced to the 12th century when most people wore long, flowing robes. By the 17th century, certain universities established the tradition of wearing apparel that distinguished different degrees and faculties. In 1895, the Intercollegiate Commission developed a code that regulated the design of gowns and hoods and their colors.

BUSINESS: drab gold

EDUCATION: light blue

EXERCISE AND SPORT SCIENCES: sage green

MUSIC: pink

Today, we will honor our candidates with their hoods, which are a distinguishing part of the dress. They are lined in silk in the official academic colors of Ithaca College, and the trim color indicates the graduate's academic discipline. Our doctoral candidates are wearing gowns with three bars of velvet on each sleeve, while our master's candidates wear gowns with oblong sleeves.

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY: ink

PHYSICAL THERAPY: teal

SPEECH-LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY: silver

Message from the President

DEAR GRADUATES:

Today is the formal recognition of the completion of your graduate study at Ithaca College and represents a significant step toward achieving your professional goals. I wish to extend my sincere congratulations and recognize what an incredible moment of academic achievement this is for you. I admire your perseverance, your focus, and your commitment to deeply mastering your field of study.

As you celebrate today with your friends and family, please know how proud we are to count you as members of our Ithaca Forever community. I wish you much success and happiness in your future careers and life, and I encourage you to keep in touch with all of us here on South Hill.

May you be well, stay well, and take good care.

Sincerely,

LA JERNE TERRY CORNISH
PRESIDENT, ITHACA COLLEGE

Speaker

AMIE GERMAIN is a proud member of the Ithaca College community. She is an associate professor in the Department of Occupational Therapy, chair of graduate studies in occupational therapy, and codirector of educational development for the college's Center for Faculty Excellence. In these roles, she teaches undergraduate and graduate students, advises graduate students, and interacts with faculty across campus as they develop in the craft of teaching.

With a clinical background spanning early intervention, preschool, school-based services, private practice, and hospital-based care, Germain brings a depth of experience to her teaching role. She integrates Universal Design for Learning principles into course design, fostering inclusive learning environments that cater to diverse student needs. By prioritizing learner agency, flexibility, and universal support, she continues to sustain the transformation of traditional teaching methods. Her passion for uniting concepts of therapy and education exemplifies her commitment to lifelong learning and meaningful impact.

Announcements

DIPLOMA DISTRIBUTION

An official diploma will be mailed to the address each student provided on their application for degree and will arrive approximately four weeks after graduation.

EVENT PHOTOGRAPHY

There will be professional photographers working to capture images of students as they are hooded, and individually just after they cross the stage. These photos will be available for sale to families within two to three days after the event. Your student will receive an email at that time with details. Photo proofs and additional information will also be mailed to each student's permanent address. Families may purchase photos but are not obligated to do so. A limited number of candid photos of the ceremony will be available at no cost to families via the Commencement website (ithaca.edu/commencement) within two weeks after the event.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Use the hashtag #ICGrads on Instagram and X to share your favorite photos from Graduate Hooding and Commencement and congratulate our graduates.

MEDALLION

Following a tradition begun in 1992, the college's centennial year, each graduate has received a medallion inscribed with a quotation chosen by the college's president. This year the quotation comes from Amanda Gorman. "For there is always light, if only we're brave enough to see it. If only we're brave enough to be it."

ANNOUNCER

Jeremy Menard, television and radio operations manager

Your progress never stops.
Congratulations, graduates!

Ithaca Forever

Ithaca, forever shine your light on me.
In my heart together we shall always be.
And here's to Ithaca, my Ithaca, how beautiful you are.
Your towers high upon South Hill reach from stone to star.
Ithaca, forever I'll recall a smile,
Clasp a hand in friendship, walk a snowy mile.
And here's to Ithaca, my Ithaca—alma mater true.
Although I leave Cayuga's shore, I'll remember you.
Ithaca, forever guide us on our way.
Like a shining beacon light our night and day.
And here's to Ithaca, my Ithaca, how bright your vision seems.
May all your sons and daughters dare to live their dreams.
